

Cynthia Wimberly PhD is a licensed counselor in Texas where she currently is employed at the Noah Project Family Violence Center as Director of Primary Prevention and coordinator of the Batters' Intervention and Prevention Program (BIPP). She moved into nonprofit work after retiring as Chair of the Department of Counseling at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) in 2018. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from McMurry University, a Master of Arts in History from Hardin Simmons University, a Master of Education in Counseling & Human Development from Hardin Simmons University, and Doctor of Philosophy in Counselor Education from Texas Tech University. She is a Licensed Professional Counselor, Nationally Certified Counselor, a Nationally Certified School Counselor and has lifetime certificates in Texas for History, Social Studies, English, and all level School Counseling. She has been active in the Viktor Frankl Institute of Logotherapy headquartered in the United States for over 30 years, serving as Director of the Distance Learning, Chair of the Education Committee, Vice-President, and President. Currently she holds the honorary position of Board Member Emerita. She has over 40 years of experience teaching and working with students PreK-through graduate level. Her areas of research and publishing include working with at-risk youth, school counseling, meaning-centered living, education in small, rural schools and the dynamics of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking. She has been an instructor for the Logotherapy Institute for over 20 years, supervising and teaching students with clinical and nonclinical backgrounds, holding the Diplomate Clinician certification. In all areas, she utilizes the concepts of logotherapy to help others and herself live a life with meaning.